

Saturnia

Starting from humble roots in the 1960s, Saturnia has since become a major producer of quality porcelain. Sold in 13 countries worldwide, and producing 14 million individual pieces every year, Saturnia is now known for its high quality, heavy duty, stylish tableware that is specially designed to stand up to the demands of the catering industry. And, being made from sustainable materials, Saturnia's collection is not only good for livening up your tables, but for the planet too.
